

“Can A Mother Forget Her Child?”

Isaiah 49:13-16

Mother’s Day, May 10, 2015

Joseph Dutko

I. Love Celebrated (v. 13)

II. Love Questioned (v. 14)

III. Love Affirmed (v. 15)

IV. Love Demonstrated (v. 16)

“I will never leave you or forsake you”

Hebrews 13:5b

Contemplation through song:

Can a woman forget her child
And have not compassion on the son of her womb?
Surely they may forget
But I will not forget you
No, I Will not forget you

Sing all you heavens, be joyful all the Earth
Break out in singing all you mountains
The Lord has comforted his people
And He will have mercy on his afflicted
He will have mercy on his afflicted

Though Zion has said "I've been forsaken"
Zion has said "I've been forgotten"
Zion has said "I've been forsaken"
Zion has said "I've been forgotten"

Can a woman forget her child
And have not compassion on the son of her womb?
Surely they may forget
But I will not forget you, my people
No, I will not forget you, oh Israel
I will not forget you!

See, I have inscribed you on the palm of My hands
Your walls are ever before Me
See, I have inscribed you on the palm of My hands
Your walls are ever before Me

(Adapted from the song “149” by Misty Edwards)