

Sermon Notes

Joseph Dutko—March 24, 2019

"A Battle of the Gods"

Exodus 7-10

Setting the Scene: Exodus 7:1-13

I. The Plagues

II. The Plan

<sup>13</sup> Then the LORD said to Moses, "Get up early in the morning, confront Pharaoh and say to him, 'This is what the LORD, the God of the Hebrews, says: Let my people go, so that they may worship me,'<sup>14</sup> or this time I will send the full force of my plagues against you and against your officials and your people, so you may know that there is no one like me in all the earth.<sup>15</sup> For by now I could have stretched out my hand and struck you and your people with a plague that would have wiped you off the earth.<sup>16</sup> But I have raised you up for this very purpose, that I might show you my power and that my name might be proclaimed in all the earth. (Exodus 9:13-16)

Then the LORD said to Moses, "Go to Pharaoh, for I have hardened his heart and the hearts of his officials so that I may perform these signs of mine among them <sup>2</sup> that you may tell your children and grandchildren . . . how I performed my signs among them, and that you may know that I am the LORD." (Exodus 10:1-2)

III. The Promise

"This [battle] calls for patient endurance on the part of the people of God and remaining faithful to Jesus"
(Revelation 13:10 & 14:12)
